Marie Goddi PICTURE PAGE 43

Dear Marie,
Though you forgot to take me home from the awards banquet - I won't hold it against you.
Do you remember the time we were looking at yearbooks over at your house? So funny. Had alot of fun with you in Rio Dell last summer (cruising fortuna main street)
Good luck in everything you do - I know you can do good - you haven't failed yet. Hope to see you this summer.

Love,
Joyce

Nice to know you
See you around

Marie,
Im so glad that I got to know you this yr. We sure had some good talks while we were jogging It was fun going to McDonalds. I could keep on writing but... P.S. stay sweet forever and come back I wait. Im going to miss you a lot Have a great summer & good luck in life Love Debbie 77

DEDICATION

We dedicate this, our 1975 yearbook, to CARL DEL GRANDE. More than a teacher, he is a friend to each of us. He has taken the time to care and for this we give him our respect, our admiration and our love. He has given us strength and spirit, victory and pride. In return we offer him our love.

CRUSADERS OF THE YEAR 1975

ANDREW ALLEN

ANN IVANCICH

THE ENTHUSIASTIC SPIRIT OF ANDREW ALLEN AND ANN IVANCICH HAS BEEN PASSING THROUGH OUR HALLS FOR FOUR HAPPY YEARS. THE FACULTY SELECTED FROM AMONG TWELVE OUTSTANDING SENIOR NOMINATIONS THE TWO 1975 CRUSADERS WHO BEST EXAMPLIFIED DAILY GROWTH IN LOVE OF LIFE AND IN KNOWLEDGE OF GOD AND HIS CREATION. WHO COULD SAY MORE FOR THE PERSISTENT LEADERSHIP OF ANDY WHO INSPIRED US TO ACHEIVE NEW STUDENT GOALS. WHO COULD SEE AND FEEL MORE IN THE VIVACIOUS SMILE OF ANN WHO WARMED OUR PRECIOUS MOMENTS TOGETHER. WE ARE PROUD OF YOU, ANDY AND ANN.

FACULTY

Each member of St. Bernard's faculty brings a special talent and personality to us. They work for us and with us to give us every advantage they can. Every teaching member of the staff is concerned for the individual. The administration works diligently to maintain the school's standards. Together they provide for the students an education that truly helps prepare them for life. The students want to thank the dedicated faculty for their concern and help.

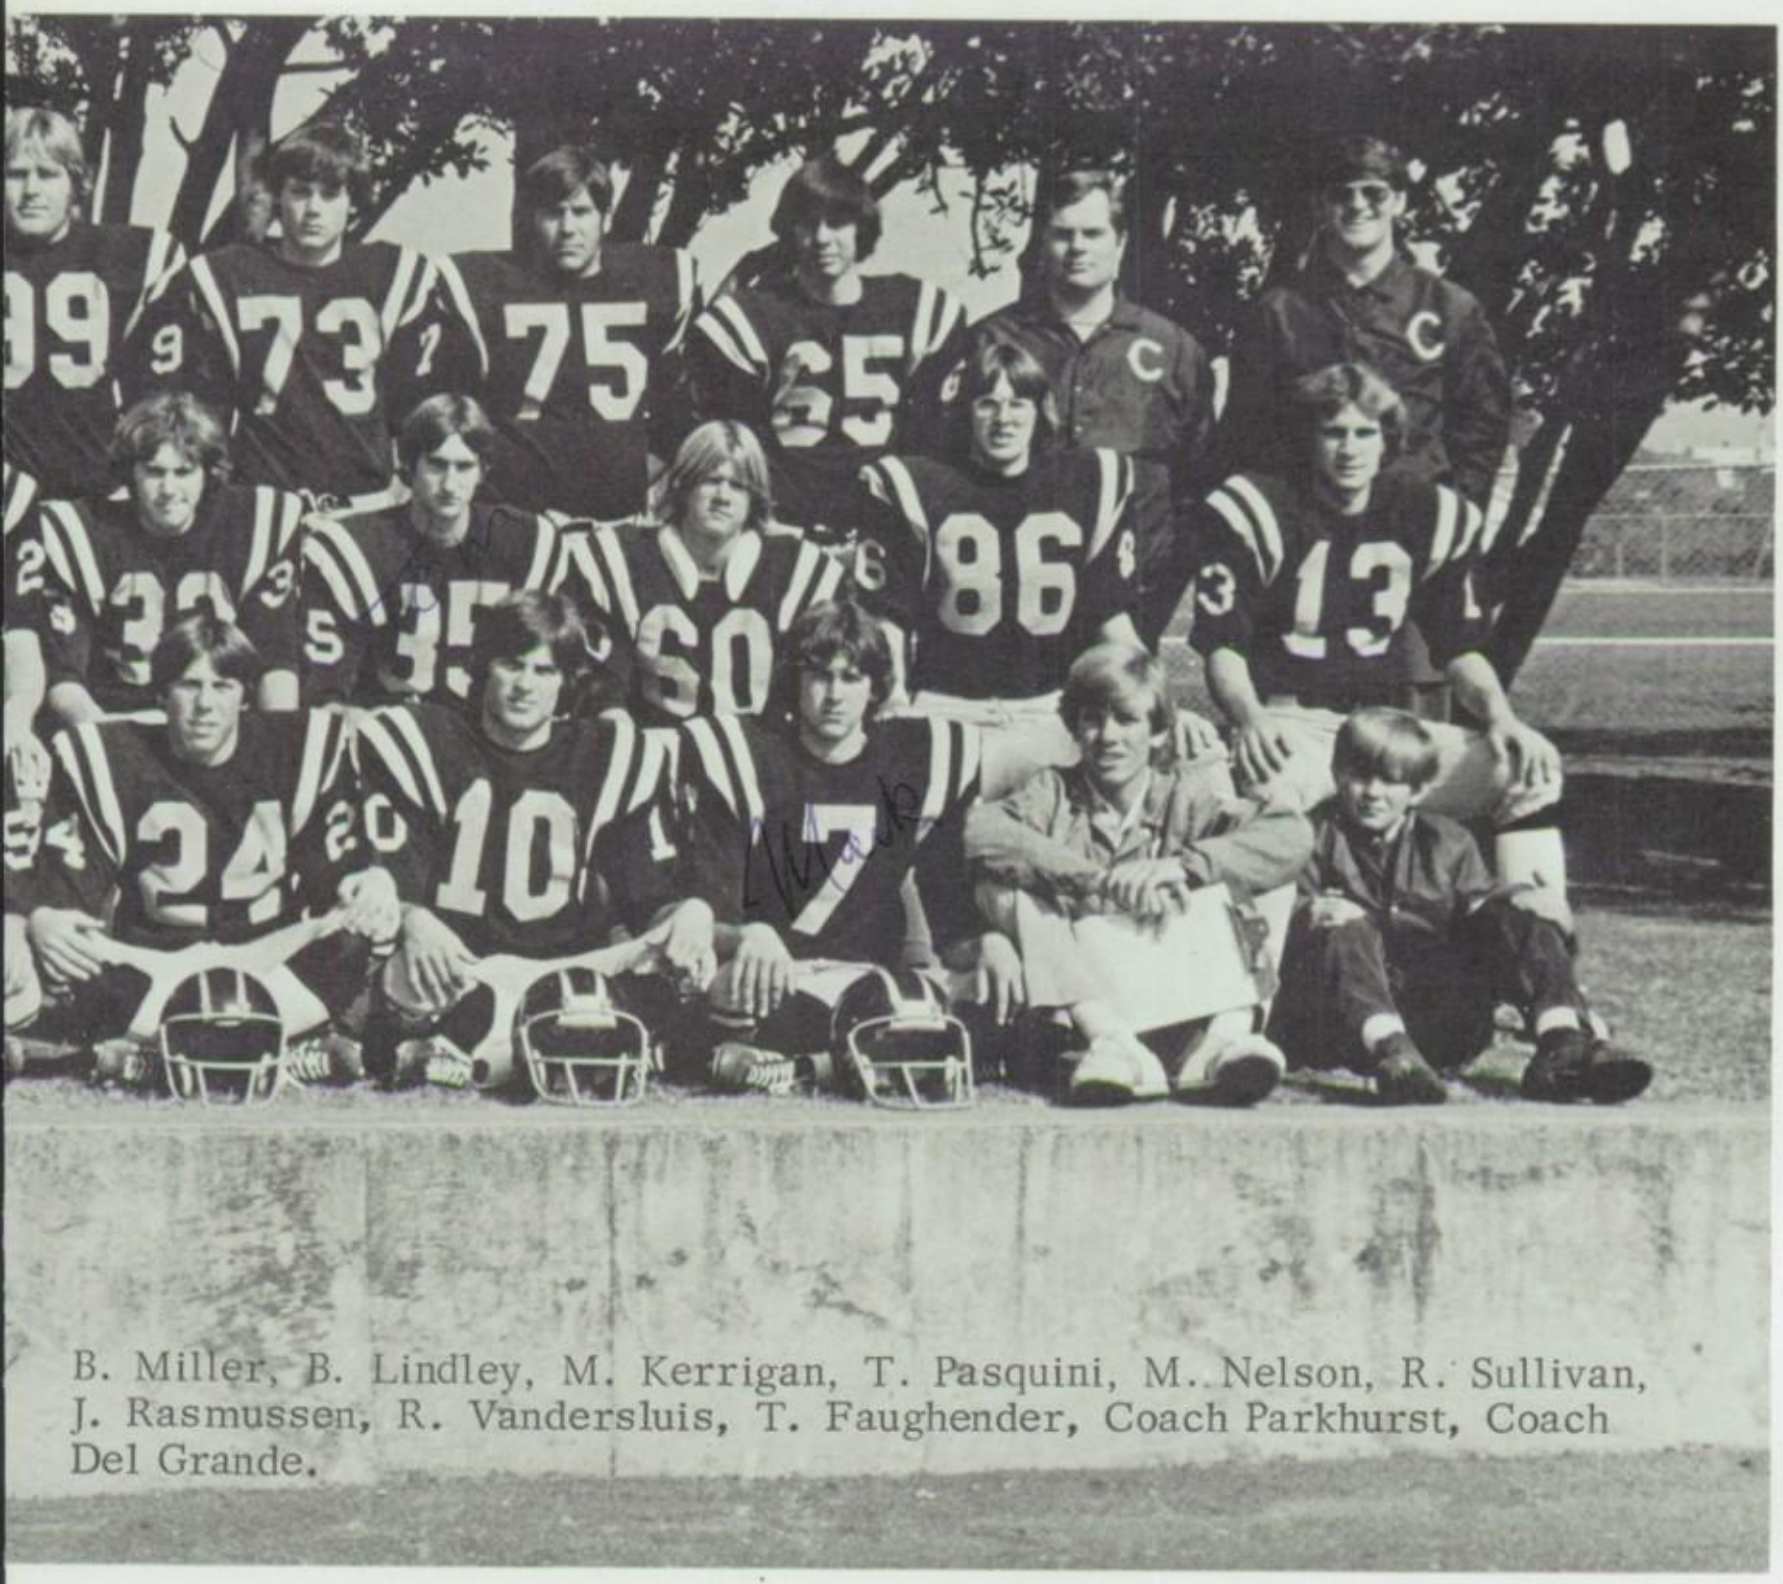
CHAMPIONS



B. Miller, B. Lindley, M. Kerrigan, T. Pasquini, M. Nelson, R. Sullivan, J. Rasmussen, R. Vandersluis, T. Faughender, Coach Parkhurst, Coach Del Grande.

Crusaderville enjoyed a very successful football season this year bringing home a co-championship. At the beginning of the season, though, things didn't look too encouraging for the mighty Crusaders. They started off the season with two loses in their first three games, but then, as Coach Del Grande said, "The 25 individuals jelled into a team." This team won their next six games in a row and a co-championship. The year was highlighted by the Crusaders' thrilling 26-21 come-from-behind victory over Ferndale. "Many people said it was an upset but we knew we were better than they were all along. We just went out and knocked the 'badingas' off them", Coach Del Grande said after the game. "This is a victory the boys and I will remember for a long time."

HOMEC

Homecoming Week this year was the best in a long time. Class spirit and Green Pride were evident in all the activities, especially the Powderpuff Game, the Rally and Relays, the victorious Homecoming Game, and the Dance. Thanks to the Senior Class, especially Becky Roberts, Chairman and Andy Allen, President, and the rest of the Student Body for making the week a success.

Homecoming Week began with Girls' Hush Morning on Mon. Noon-time activities featured a Big Sister-Little Sister Lunch. On Tues. Kevin Magladry and Mary Jurkovich won the Hat-n-Boot competition. That night was the Spagetti Feed followed by a soc-hop with music provided by a local d.j. On Wed., Bike Day, Duane Benson won the noon-time cycle race. The first Powderpuff Flashlight Rally was held that night. On Thurs. --Spiffy Duds Day-Bob Miller and Cathy Spalding were voted best-dressed. After lunch, the Minnesota Twinkies triumphed over the Tangerine Machine 12 to ZIP. Friday's Mass, planned by the Sophs, was one of the best of the year. Freshmen won the bell at the Rally but the Seniors took the Relays by a landslide. The day was highlighted by the Crusader victory over South Fork, 42-6. Saturday's semi-formal dance topped off the week's exciting activities.

Christmas Week at school was a time of good cheer and spirit. Each morning Mr. Del Grande and any number of students sang carols. Wednesday was Girl's Hush morning and a box lunch sale. Thursday was Guy's Hush morning and a full-length movie. On Friday, we gathered for a spirit Mass and the presentation of class plays. Santa sent gifts to the deserving faculty. But the highlight of the week was the Christmas Dance on Saturday night. We ended the year 1974 dancing. Merry Christmas!

The Crusaders enjoyed a very successful basketball season this year. They started the season off hot, taking second in the Nevada Union Tournament and winning the Arcata Invitational Tourney. The Green Machine finished the season with a 21-6 overall record and a 9-2 league record, giving them the Little Four Championship for the third consecutive season and a berth in the North Coast Section playoffs. The Crusaders also boasted the toughest defense in both leagues giving up less than 45 pts. per game.

Some of the varsity standouts included all-conference center Zach Barnes and second team all-conference guard Scott Rotherham, along with the other starters Bob Miller, Larry Lucchini, and Jack Walsh who all received honorable mention. Coach Z. also credits his team's success with reserves Clark Keeney, George Ambrosini, Mark Nelson, Tom Pasquini, and Dan Cruz.

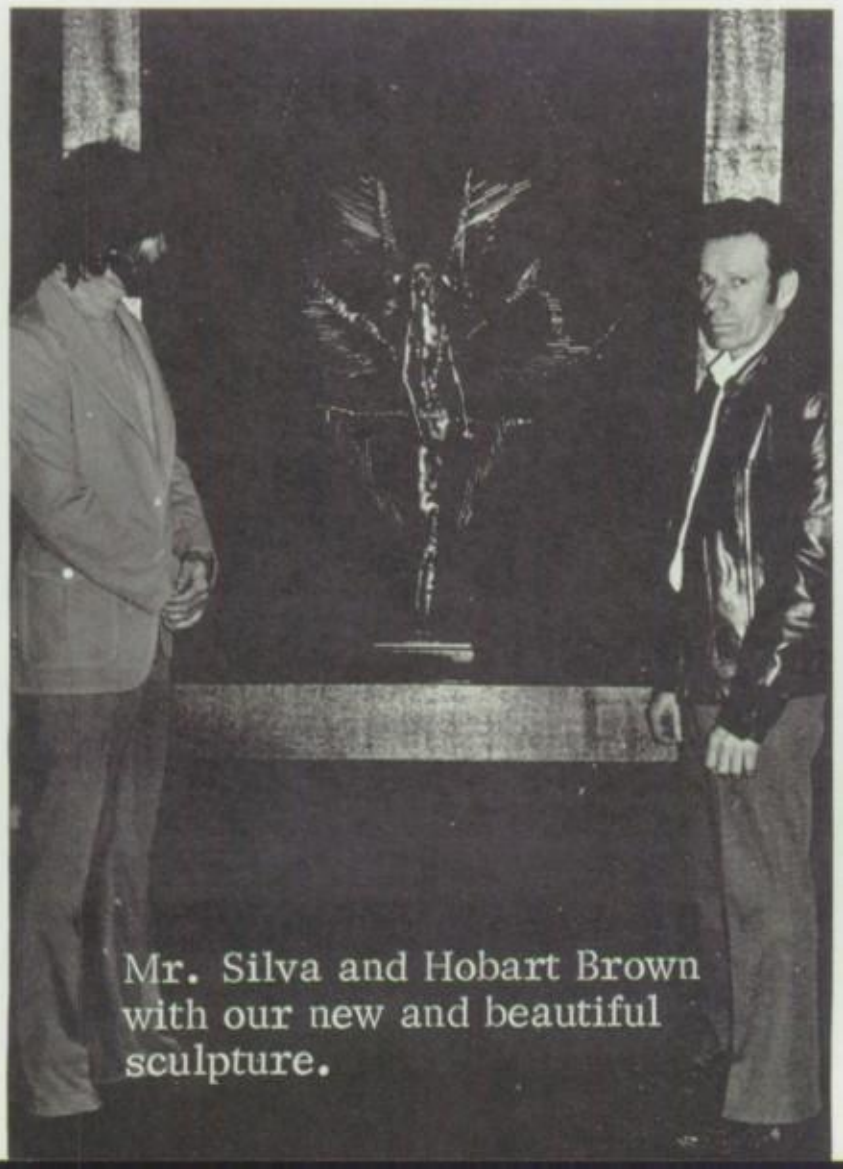
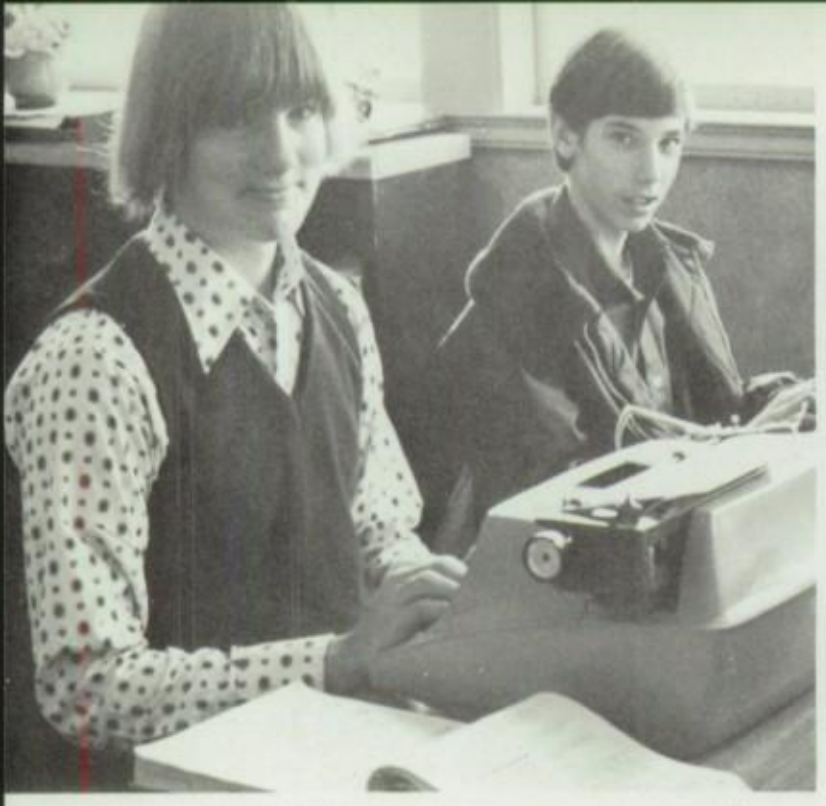
Our most coveted possession: the bell!

Traditions and new additions add to the spirit of SBHS, but the real spirit lies in the people.



Mr. Silva and Hobart Brown with our new and beautiful sculpture.

Even Parkhurst and Del Grande enjoyed the band.



Richard and Gary take a break from typing.

Our basketball cheerleaders entertain us with "In the Mood".

A friend is the "in Flesh" entirety these pictures represent. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors, passing by so quickly. We try to remember faces, events, names. Time robs us of the memory, but the friendship is always.

Marie,
What a great year!
I pack was perfect this year with (a lot) of exceptions Tell Lyn she'd better be track coach next year or else! Hope you find what you want in life. Take care - have a fantastic summer!
Idope to see you alot!
Friends always!

Goddie
(19 and unattractive)
It's been a good year,
Dear sweetheart) Remember horse mtn.? what an exuberating experience!!
Really in glad i got to know you this year. your a good Buddy and a beer drinking partner. I you just kidding! your 3rd period would've and then the same without you. I'll see and see and flaunt our beautiful Boddies on the beach
P.S. Be sore and stay in touch this summer o.k.

Marie
I'm so glad you were from this year. I had alot of Graduation good luck on parties and so take care of yourself.
Love ya
Kit the Shit

Marie,
Hey! Right on Baby. We are finally out. Bout 'its going to miss Short Story and Track really kind of sad. I'm History! Short 3 blast! I'll never forget the was a blast. I want to create and time we wrote a novel
this five we wrote the forget basketball game. Be sure and write to me o.k.? Love ya, Nicole

Marie,
It was fast year, but I'm glad I got to know you! Next year I'll be a soph. and you'll be gone from S.B. Come back next year and visit ole S.B. Have a good summer and be a good kid! Good Luck!
Love, 1978
Theresa
Mendenhall

Marie,
I have liked you always like a sister throughout high school & enjoyed to be lazy to talk happy life and seem to have enjoying time at an enjoyable college. Love
Elaine

Marie,
I've got a whole page to write what I want to, I wish you the best in all the whole world.
Come see me
with Patty if you home. Gabbeard Love,
Gina

Marie—

So we got "the shaft" on our last religion report ever. Cloney never was my favorite. I know your opinion was different about him but we ~~wouldn~~ won't get into that. The final last week of S.B.H.S. Can you handle it? Honestly I'm pretty sad about Graduating. I'm not going to say Good-Bye though because I know we'll remain close and keep in touch. Good luck in your waitress career— HA HA

Love from,
Barb
